

United States[®] Census 2010

The U.S. Census Bureau is issuing a call to action for every resident of our nation:
“BE COUNTED IN 2010.”

The Census: A Snapshot

- What: The census is a count of everyone residing in the United States.
- Who: All U.S. residents must be counted—people of all races and ethnic groups, both citizens and non-citizens.
- When: Census Day is April 1, 2010. Questionnaire responses should represent the household as it exists on this day. More detailed socioeconomic information will be collected annually from a small percentage of the population through the American Community Survey.
- Why: The U.S. Constitution requires a national census once every 10 years. The census will show state population counts and determine representation in the U.S. House of Representatives.
- How: Census questionnaires will be delivered or mailed to households via U.S. mail in March 2010; many households will receive a replacement questionnaire in early April. Census workers also will visit households that do not return questionnaires.

A Complete Count: The Importance of Census Data

- Every year, the federal government can allocate more than $300 billion to states and communities based, in part, on census data.
- Census data can be used for writing grant proposals.
- Community planners and governments rely on census data to determine where there is a need for additional social services and funding.
- Census data can help you estimate the number of potential volunteers in your community and the number of residents who may need your services.

2010 Census Questionnaire: Quick, Easy and Confidential

- With only 10 questions, the 2010 Census questionnaire is one of the shortest questionnaires in history and takes just 10 minutes to complete.
- By law, the Census Bureau cannot share an individual's census questionnaire responses with anyone, including other federal agencies and law enforcement entities.

THE 2010 CENSUS IS IMPORTANT.

It determines the distribution of more than $300 billion annually of government funding for critical community services. It generates thousands of jobs across the country. And it impacts your voice in Congress.

YOU CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE.

As an influential community-based organization leader, you can ensure the people you represent are fully counted. With your help, the Census Bureau will continue to produce accurate data, which will directly affect the quality of life in your community.
